Dear Fabio Galasso

Thanks for being an author of a previous INSTICC/SCITEPRESS conference.

We believe it is our responsibility to try to make the papers that we publish as visible as possible, in order to promote the work of authors (your research work) and increase potential collaborations amongst authors.

Here is the current indexation status:

- "People Detection in Fish-eye Top-views" (paper #29 @ VISAPP 2017) was indexed in: dblp, SCOPUS

We are actively trying to index your papers in Google Scholar but, because Google Scholar usually takes a lot of time, we hereby formally authorize you to include a copy of your papers in the public repository of your Institution/University. This may speed up the indexation process. It is not a problem if a paper is indexed from two repositories: your institution's and ours at SCITEPRESS.

If you have any questions or suggestions I am at your disposal.

Best regards,
Vitor Pedrosa
